

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Body of Darius Miller, former president of the Burlington Route, on way to city by special train. Funeral here.

Explosions accompanying a fire at the Wm. Jobbins Chemical Co. in Aurora imperiled lives of 15,000. Nitroglycerin destroyed building.

Special grand jury busy today on the LaSalle Bank investigation. May return indictments.

Norman Ayers, 4450 Oakenwald av., pinched for robbery of phone box in drug store of Chas. Walgreen, 3900 Cottage Grove av.

Two women and six men arrested in raid on alleged disorderly flat at 2118 S. State st.

John Hass, 531 N. Fairfield av., scalped by brick. Police after Robt. Chachor, friend.

David Gillespie, 626 Garfield av., robbed of watch and $130 by hold-up man.

Body of unidentified man found in lake near Burton st. Has engineer's union button. Sand filled pockets caused suicide belief.

John Ceselman, 402 Wells st., had pockets picked of $350 on Belmont "L" station platform.

E. S. Breen, 4939 N. St. Louis av., robbed of watch and $50.

Jacob Kolicek, 2015 Loomis st., beaten by seven men. Six pinched. One shot.

Michael Molloy, 76, 1362 W. Madison st., dead. Police claim was killed by auto of F. L. Wells, Oak Park. Denied by Wells.

Policeman Floyd Wilcox broke second finger of right hand arresting Edward Dawan. Dawan pinched.

Louis Zelebak, 2312 W. 21st st., stabbed by three men. Hospital. No reason known.

Franklin Parker, 3819 Wabash av., pinched for con game. Sold his "engagement rings" in great numbers for 10 cents.

Policeman Jas. Minehan and Michael Fleming attacked and beaten by crowd of loiterers. Two held.

Mrs. Gilbert McKay, 3622 Wentworth av., choked by intruder. House ransacked. Gas turned on. Motive in doubt.

Sumner Ettinger, 13, 1636 Byron st., missing. Out to make fortune, parents believe.

Alexander Kemars, Russian butcher, 1301 W. Chicago av., killed wife. Suicided. Family trouble.

Voliva intends to banish ragtime from Zion City. Censorship to be established.

Two million in jewels on display by American Jewelers' Ass'n in convention.

L. A. Mills, Decatur lawyer, here to have dentist's drill removed from stomach, coughed instrument up.

City chemist to tell whether stains on clothes of Allen Thomson are blood. Held for murder of employer, E. P. Emory, in Gas Bldg.

Michael Culick, 3956 Indiana av., killed by robbers. Four held.

Chas. Weatherhead, 8, 61 E. 87th pl., killed by auto at 87th st. and Cottage Grove av. Autoist escaped.

Fred Cady, of "Elopers" Company, pinched for wife desertion.

Electric lights in Federal Bldg. out four hours Sunday night. Accident in boiler room.

Womens' Catholic Order of Foresters in convention. Discuss fraternal insurance.

Armed robbers held up Lynch's room, 2313 Indiana av. Got $8. Escaped in stolen auto.

Mrs. Margaret Cronnall, 73, 4924 Vincennes av., fell while crossing loop street. Broke ankle.

Eric Johnson, Waukegan, stabbed after fight with two negro women at 2926 Federal st. Hospital. Women pinched.

John Gajdyuski pinched for entering home of Wm. Perry, 6013 Harper av. Two Persian rugs taken. Two other men escaped.

Benjamin Metzler, 1360 W. Randolph st., aroused by shots fired by